I Am Not Crazy!

"I'm not crazy Pastor, but I feel like it sometimes," Lupe confessed to Pastor Rob last month from her nearly empty home.

Pastor Rob had recently met Lupe when a family member of hers, whom we work with, passed away from cancer. Lupe called him one day terrified after seeing what she believed to be "ghosts" in her home and desperately wanted help.

As Pastor Rob spoke with her on the phone, she sounded very distressed and actually sent him a picture from her phone of what was keeping her up at night. It was a picture of her kitchen, nothing more.

Pastor Rob sensed that Lupe wasn't being tormented by a spiritual entity but was hallucinating instead. Her erratic level of communication seemed to emanate an aura of paranoia and everything she communicated was an "urgent emergency" that had to be addressed right then and there.

Each time Lupe would call Pastor Rob, her same erratic patterns would manifest. Once her panic subsided, her "emergency" became an issue that she tabled for another time. This kind of pattern continued for several days until Pastor Rob could actually meet with her in person.

When that day finally came, Lupe was nervously laughing at herself and continually apologizing for her crazy behavior, stating, "I'm not crazy!" She proceeded to tell Pastor Rob that she had been diagnosed with a few different mental health disorders as well as insomnia, which would keep her awake for days from the stress-induced hallucinations she was experiencing from her mental health issues.

After spending some time with Lupe, taking to her and praying with her, Pastor Rob encouraged her in Jesus. He let her know how much she is loved by God, and that He has a wonderful plan for her life, if she would commit her life to Him by faith.

Part of our mission statement at Jordan Outreach Ministries is to not only demonstrate the love of Jesus by helping meet the spiritual, physical, educational, and recreational needs of the poor, but also to help minister to their emotional needs as well. And because of that, we want Lupe to know Jesus loves her; we want her to understand that God knows exactly what she is going through; we want her to experience the help and healing He has for her.

We will continue to keep you updated on Lupe and her situation but in the meantime, please keep her in your prayers that Jesus would reach her heart with the gospel and that she would surrender her entire life to him. ☺

A Message From Joe and Kris

Happy New Year! As you know, 2015 was filled with many wonderful blessings for the children and families we serve, of which you were a part of making happen when you prayed for and supported the work of Jordan Outreach Ministries. We have also faced some very difficult financial challenges and yet, though we are not nearly out of the woods, we want you to know that we are both committed to fulfilling the vision God gave us, which is to declare and demonstrate the love of Jesus to the poor, and we will continue pressing on through 2016 by the grace of God!

We would ask that you continue to pray for us and for the Lord's provision for Jordan Outreach Ministries. And we want to thank you for continuing to stand with us in 2016! May the Lord bless you and yours in this new year! ☺
